AUTOMATIC DOMESTIC STANDING ORDER

This Standing Order binds the parties in the above-styled action, their agents, servants, employees, and all other persons action in concert with such parties.

1.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from causing or permitting the minor child(ren) of the parties to be removed from the jurisdiction of this Court.

2.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from doing, or attempting to do, or threatening to do, any act, injuring, maltreating, vilifying, molesting, or harassing the adverse party other child(ren) of the parties.

3.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, trading, contracting to sell, or otherwise disposing or removing from the jurisdiction of the Court any of the property belonging to the parties except in the ordinary course of business.

4.

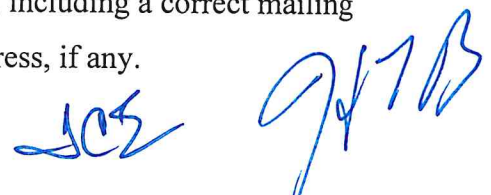

Attorneys and pro se parties are directed to comply with Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2. Failure to do so may result in the scheduled hearing being continued.

5.

Within ten (10) days of an attorney being retained by the Defendant, in addition to filing an entry of appearance, the attorney is to contact the office of the undersigned Judge handling the case and give the attorney's contact information, including an email address.

6.

If the Defendant does not have an attorney, the defendant is to contact the Clerk's office within ten (10) days of service and provide contact in formation, including a correct mailing address, a correct phone number, if any, and a correct email address, if any.

7.

When divorce cases are filed requiring service by the Sheriff, the Clerk of Superior Court will attach copies of this Standing Order to the original and service copies of the divorce and give or send a copy of this Standing Order to the attorney or person filing the divorce. If the filing of the divorce was by mail, the Clerk will mail a copy of this Order to the attorney or person filing.

8.

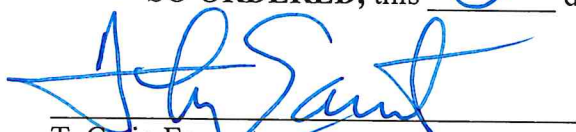

When divorces are to be served by publication, the Clerk of Superior Court will follow the same procedure as above.

9.

When divorces are filed with an acknowledgement of service, the Clerk of Superior Court will attach a copy of this Standing Order to the original complaint, give or mail a copy of this Order to the attorney or person filing, and in addition since we do not usually have the address of the Defendant, the Clerk will give another copy of this Order to the attorney or person filing with instructions that they are responsible for serving the Defendant with the copy. Within ten (10) days of receipt of a copy of this Order, the Defendant will comply with the requirement of paragraph 6 above.

This Order shall apply to all Domestic Relations Actions as defined by O.C.G.A. §19-1-1 and shall be a Standing Order until further action by this Court and supercedes all prior Domestic Standing Orders.
